

I do not want to be telemarketed by any business or organization, no exceptions. The Wisconsin No Call List has made it possible for me to be relatively undisturbed at home. I no longer receive unsolicited calls and I want to keep it that way. My telephone is for my family's use, not to open our home and our private time to invasion by strangers and profit-seekers.